LEARNING OUTCOMES

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT TO LEARN

We believe education entails more than just a trainer standing in the front of a room and lecturing. We don't learn that way and neither do you. Through active engagement and communication, you will be involved in the training just as much as the presenter. We will provide workbooks, catalogs and the necessary demo and visual aids to enhance the experience through "real-world" selections and quoting.

We will also highlight

- NORD profile and advantages in the marketplace
- Basic Power Transmission calculations
- Catalog usage (layout and selection pages)
- Product nomenclature and construction
- Standard & optional features & benefits
- Motor technology
- Order and assembly process
